

CONSTITUTION

- e) The President represents the Association and presides over the Executive Committee meetings. He is permitted to take the decisions on behalf of the club solely, if authorized by the Executive Committee.
- f) The Secretary takes the responsibility for the administrative work of the Association, as specified by the Executive Committee. He calls the Executive Committee meetings giving an agenda and records the minutes of these meetings.
- g) The Treasurer manages the finances of the Association. He submits the annual Financial Reports of the Association to the Executive Committee for the annual General Body Meeting.
- h) The signatures of two members of the Executive Committee, one of them being that of the President or that of the Secretary, are legally binding for the Association.

9. Control of Accounts

The accounts are controlled by two Auditors who are not members of the Executive Committee. They are elected by the General Body for a period of one year. They check the accounts of the Association and give a report in writing to the Executive Committee for further transmission to the General Body.

10. Liability

The liability of the individual members is restricted to its membership fees and the liability of the Association to its maximum assets.

For any obligation entered into by an individual member with a third party, the Association cannot be made liable for his actions. Externally the Association is liable to its maximum assets.

11. Dissolution

The Indian Association Baden can function unlimitedly. In order to dissolve the Association, the votes of 2/3 of the voting members of the Association is necessary.

In case of dissolution of the Association, the property of the Indian Association Baden goes to a charitable organization e. g. the Indian Red Cross or any other Indian Association in Switzerland.

Validity: The articles of the above mentioned Constitution were accepted at the Extra General Body Meeting held at Restaurant Krone in Turgi on Saturday the 20th Sept. 1980 and comes into immediate effect as from this date.

P. Sandhu

sd/-

(Treasurer)

D. Sukheswala

sd/-

(President)

T. Ghosh

sd/-

(Secretary)

Certified as a correct copy

Baden, first October 1980

Notary public sd/- Dr. V. Schmid

1. Name, Seat

The "Indian Association Baden" (abbreviated form IAB) is an Association, according to Article 60ff of the Swiss Civil Code. The Seat of the Association is in Baden.

2. Languages

The official languages are English and German. In case of discrepancies, the English version will prevail.

3. Objectives

To get together for non political, non commercial, cultural and recreational purposes, and further to promote cultural relationship and understanding between Indians, Swiss and other nationals.

4. Working Method

The Association's objectives are accomplished in the following manner:

- a) At least four get-togethers are to be arranged per year, in the form of cultural activities, film shows, excursions, picnics, lectures, etc.
- b) The Association is to keep members informed of matters of common interest such as Chartered Flights, Indian food, Indian Magazines, books and records, as well as the activities of other friendly Associations.
- c) Other activities to achieve the objectives of the Association can be further initiated.

5. Membership

- a) Anyone is eligible for membership to the Indian Association Baden and may request a membership form. The written application should be approved by the Executive Committee.
- b) Members who fail to meet their financial obligations towards the Associations despite a written reminder shall cease to be members. However, they shall still be obliged to equate their outstanding dues.
- c) The General Body, with a 2/3 majority of the members of the Association, can expel a member on a serious charge if it so desires.
- d) Yearly membership fee is at present

Fr. 36.- for single person

Fr. 48.- for a married couple

Pro rata membership fee is acceptable from the new members. Any changes in the membership fees have to be accepted by the majority of the General Body.